Harvest Moon Hurrah, October 8

Shaun Barrowes & Lindsey Stirling to Headline Event

The Spanish Fork Arts Council is excited to welcome pop-jazz singer/songwriter Shaun Barrowes back home for the 7th Annual Harvest Moon Hurrah! After touring internationally, this American Idol contestant and Spanish Fork native will be joined by Lindsey Stirling, a 2010 top 10 on America's Got Talent. Read more about these amazing performers on back!

Now in its seventh year, the Harvest Moon Hurrah is a free family-friendly event for the entire community to celebrate the harvest and the arts! This year the fun takes place on Saturday, October 8th, 2011 from 2:00-10:00 pm at the Library Park on Center & Main Street in Spanish Fork.

In addition to Shaun and Lindsey we are excited to have Lincoln Highway, Firefly, Chris Stiles, Steel Harmonics, crowd favorite Drew Briney the juggling storyteller, and many other wonderful and talented live performers. As always there will be children's games and crafts, hayrides with live bluegrass bands, storytellers, caricature artists, 4 giant paint-it-yourself murals, the family photo booth, and much more!!! There will be many different delicious food choices from local vendors - all for $3 or less.

Live Theater at the HMH

This year we have added a full theater performance to our festival. Written and directed by Cami Jensen, The Impossible Mystery is a hilarious "tour de farce" that will have you guessing and laughing to the final curtain. Performances will be held in the little Theatre at SFHS Wed. Oct. 5 thru Fri. Oct. 7 at 7:00 pm. They will also perform a scene from the play during the regular entertainment in the park on Saturday.

More about the entertainment on back.

New Director for the Nebo Chorale—Meet Lindsey Snarr Partridge

After an extensive search, the Arts Council is pleased to introduce Lindsey Snarr Partridge as the new director of the Nebo Chorale, Spanish Fork's community choir.

Lindsey brings a wealth of experience and talent to this position. She currently teaches private voice lessons, earned a degree in music education, has over 7 years of experience as a high school choral director, has received numerous awards and been in many musical productions both as director and performer, and was a member of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir from 2002-2010.

Come join Lindsey and the rest of the Nebo Chorale as they begin their 2011-12 season. Practices will be held every Tuesday at 7:00 pm (beginning September 6) in the choir room at SFHS. The Chorale will perform at the HMH and at their annual Christmas concert in December.

HMH Expands to Include Theater Production

Every other year with the help of Anna Murock, the Harvest Moon Hurrah (HMH) has presented a melodrama as part of its entertainment. In an effort to expand this fall arts festival and to offer more live theater opportunities to the community, the Arts Council is pleased to announce the formation of a new theater company as part of the HMH. This will become a regular part of the HMH each year with non-musical productions such as The Foreigner, and Arsenic and Old Lace, and will compliment the great musical productions put on each summer by the Community Theater. This year's production of The Impossible Mystery, will showcase the talents of many of our more seasoned thespians. Don't miss it! Oct. 5-7, 7:00 pm, Little Theatre.

More About Shaun Barrowes

Pop-jazz singer/songwriter, Shaun Barrowes is bursting onto the music scene! He's signing a publishing deal with Sony Records, was on American Idol, Season 7, composed an original song that will be featured on a Coca-Cola commercial, wrote the theme song for Shadow Complex (top selling and award-winning video game of 2009), placed a song in Drop Dead Diva (Lifetime), performed in an L.A. rock band for Sony Records, was nominated for the Hollywood Music Awards and an Independent Music Award, won $30,000 for receiving most votes in a UK Music Contest, Slice the Pie, and he is touring the US and Europe with his highly acclaimed Live for Music Tour.

A recent review stated that Shaun Barrowes music "is clearly a nod to a rich musical past and an appreciation of its wide-screen cinema, [but his] pop leanings give the music a contemporary framework—the songs are both a longing glance backward and a running jump forward."

More About Lindsey Stirling

Lindsey Stirling is 24, from Gilbert, Ariz. and a senior at BYU studying therapeutic recreation. Last year she was on the national hit TV show America's Got Talent for her hip hop violin, and made it to the top ten.

Her hip-hop music and dance routine with an uptempo beat will WOW you. Lindsey says this about herself, "My violin has continued to bring color and adventure into every phase of my life. I enjoy jazzing up my classical violin skills with some rock and hip hop. There are very few things that I love more than being on stage and performing, but more than anything, I want to be a positive role model for teenage girls. ## Spanish Fork Youtheatre 2011-12 Season

Spanish Fork Youtheatre is offering three great opportunities for the youth in Utah County to be involved in a positive theatre experience. We will be presenting three different shows this year: The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. All three shows will be a wonderful way for your child to develop their theatre talents. One of the reasons we are doing three shows is that we have so many talented children, and this will give an opportunity for more parts.
