ThePianoGuys to Perform at Harvest Moon Hurrah, Sept. 22

Jon Schmidt and Steven Sharp Nelson to Headline Event

What do Beethoven, Victor Borge, U2, and Billy Joel have in common? You can enjoy each of their influences while sitting in the audience when ThePianoGuys perform at this year’s Harvest Moon Hurrah, Saturday, September 22 in the Library Park. Mix these influences together with a couple guys that play classical instruments and that try not to take themselves too seriously and you have an incredibly entertaining show that delights audiences of all ages.

Jon Schmidt, pianist, and Steven Sharp Nelson, cellist, of ThePianoGuys have been called “ambassadors” of classical music. Their talent for putting a new spin on classic stuff and a classic spin on new stuff—a style that eclectically mixes classical, film score, rock, and pop—is now considered a worldwide phenomenon. Their award-winning originals and arrangements of pop tunes have amassed over 800,000 followers and 100 million YouTube views. Many have said ThePianoGuys are living proof that “real music” and “real instruments” still live on. In reality, Jon and Steve are just a couple of ordinary guys who love their families, but who clearly exhibit extraordinary passion for inspiring and entertaining others with the talents they have been given. It is easy to see and feel their love for music.

Don’t miss this FREE, family-friendly event for the entire community. In addition to ThePianoGuys, enjoy great entertainment from juggling storyteller Drew Briney, the ALA Show Choir, Spanish Fork Chorale, Nebo Philharmonic Orchestra, Annie Jensen, up-and-coming band Stringsot, and a fun teaser performance by the Harvest Moon Theatre Company.

As always there will be children’s crafts and activities, hay rides with live bluegrass music, four giant paint-it-yourself murals, caricature artists, clowns and balloon animals, storytellers, pumpkin decorating, family photo booth, and delicious food from local food vendors.

All this amazing fun begins at 3:00 pm and will go until around 9:00 pm. Come join the fun!

Harvest Moon Theatre Company is Proud to Present “Roomers” a One Act Farce by Jerome McDonough

In addition to a short teaser at the Harvest Moon Hurrah on the 22nd, the HMCT will perform “Roomers” on September 21, 24, 28, 29 and October 1, at 7:30 pm in the Spanish Fork High School Little Theatre.

The characters in this comedy are fresh, creative, and unpredictable. From the avaricious landlady who rents the pantry as a bedroom—so what if the bed has to be leaned against the wall—to the man on the roof trying to develop homing vultures, this is a rooming house filled with a wild assortment of characters. Each has his or her own problems, most of them weird and seemingly unsolvable.

Enjoy pure zaniness as this bunch of unique individuals gets crammed into a small building for the sake of generating more money for the landlady. One tenant asks everyone to be horrible to scare away her sister who is thinking of moving in. Another tenant asks everyone to be extra nice for the sake of her friend. Of course the tenants get the two women mixed up, bringing about a hilarious series of events. Will it all work out in the end?

Come find out for yourself and join us in this family friendly romp!

Tickets will be $5 Adults (12 and up), $4 Children, $30 Family Pass.

Spanish Fork Youtheatre 2012-13 Season

Spanish Fork Youtheatre is offering two great opportunities for the youth in Utah County to be involved in a positive theatre experience. We will be presenting two different shows this year. Both shows will be a wonderful way for your child to develop their theatre talents.

Into the Woods: (performing Feb. of 2013) Class will run on Wed. 5:15 to 6:30 p.m. at Larsen Elementary, Sept - Feb. An ambivalent Cinderella? A overly hungry Little Red Ridinghood? Two handsome, but insincere, Princes? A Witch...who raps? They're all among the cockeyed characters in James Lapine and Stephen Sondheim's fractured fairy tale. We will have a group of younger children in this show. They will have specialty numbers throughout the show. Class time for this group will be 5:15 to 6:00 p.m.

Babes in Toyland: (performing April of 2013) Class will run on Wed. 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. at Larsen Elementary. Sept - Apr. Tom Tom the Piper's Son is about to marry Mary Quite Contrary. On the eve of their wedding, evil miser Barnaby hires two henchmen to drown Tom and steal Mary's sheep, cared for by Little Bo Peep, thus depriving Mary and the children she lives with of their livelihood, forcing her to marry Barnaby. The sheep are stolen, but Gonzorgo and Roderigo, Barnaby's henchmen, double-cross him by selling Tom to a band of gypsies instead, leaving Tom with the opportunity to escape and make his way with Mary, Bo-Peep, and other Mother Goose characters to Toyland where the toymaker helps them solve their problem. There are a large number of speaking and solo parts for all ages in this play.

Come and join us and bring a friend!

Adult Arts Ed Workshop Just Around Corner

Before you know it 2013 will be here and it will once again be time for the Adult Arts Education Workshop. Classes will begin either on January 26 or February 2 and run for 6 weeks every Saturday at the high school. If you have suggestions for a class or if you would like to apply as an instructor for a class, call 801.798.0792.
