I started dancing when I was three years old and continued until I graduated high school. I was a cheerleader and a member of the dance company at Spanish Fork High School I became the competition team manager at The Dance Spot Dance Studio in 2010 and in the summer of 2015 became the new director/owner of The Dance Spot Dance Studio. I love dance! It has taught me so much about the importance of art in our lives, teamwork, sportsmanship, dedication, commitment, etc. I truly believe that being passionate about/involved in an art (such as dance) helps you to learn new things and focus your time and energy on becoming a better person and helping those around you. I’m excited to share what I know with the Youth Arts Festival!
